The presentation above shows the performance of the following Commodity Trading Advisors ("CTA(s)") and trading programs: Abraham Trading Company ("Abraham Trading"), Diversified Program; Chesapeake Capital Corporation ("Chesapeake Capital"), Diversified and Standard Programs; Eckhardt Trading Company ("Eckhardt"), Standard and Standard Plus Programs; EMC Capital Management, Inc. ("EMC"), EMC Classic Program; Hawksbill Capital Management ("Hawksbill Capital"), Global Diversified Program; JPD Enterprises, Inc. ("JPD"), Global Diversified Program; Saxon Investment Corp. ("Saxon"), Diversified and Aggressive Diversified Programs; Rabar Market Research Inc. ("Rabar"), Diversified Program; and Raintree Futures, Inc. ("Raintree"), General Program. "Max Monthly DD" represents the percent loss experienced by a program over a month during each year. "Max Peak-Valley DD" represents for each year the greatest cumulative percentage decline in month-end net asset value due to losses sustained by the program during any period in which the initial month-end net asset value is not equaled or exceeded by a subsequent month-end net asset value. Profits are calculated by multiplying the end-of-year assets of the prior year by the year to date percentage return. Please note that for 2006, all of the CTAs other than Raintree traded for the entire year. The information for Raintree is for trading beginning in August of 2006, the month the firm began trading.
